

For further Information

Contact your local municipality or regional district for:

- local flood information
- emergency preparedness information
- contact numbers
- web sites

The Provincial Emergency Program: www.pep.bc.ca

- province-wide information about conditions elsewhere,
- general information on personal and family preparedness,
- links to various sources of additional flood related information
- what the province is doing
- information on disaster recovery and
- information on Disaster Financial Assistance

Transportation Routes:

- For up-to-date information on road conditions and driving routes throughout BC go to www.drivebc.ca
- Drive BC also has an automated phone line: 1-800-550-4997

BC Hydro:

- See www.bchydro.com/outages or call 1-888-769-3766 for information

Natural Gas:

- For gas safety information visit the Fortis BC website at www.fortisbc.com/Pages/default.aspx
- For flood specific information visit www.fortisbc.com/NaturalGas/GasSafety/EmergencyPreparedness/Pages/Floods.aspx

Health:

- See your local health authority for flood related information.
- See Ministry of Health site for information on what to do during a flood: <http://www.healthservices.gov.bc.ca/emergency/flooding.html>
- For information on cleanup after a flood see <http://www.bchealthguide.org/healthfiles/hfile20.stm>

Canadian Government:

- Public Safety Canada www.getprepared.gc.ca/prod/ord/ordpub-eng.aspx for brochures Self help Advice - Floods What to do before and After

Canadian Council Emergency Preparedness (CCEP):

- See <http://www.ccep.ca> for information on small business emergency preparedness and templates.
- A guide to Business Continuity Planning available at CCEP*

Emergency Preparedness for Industry and Commerce Council (EPICC)

- See www.epicc.org for business emergency preparedness information

Disaster Recovery Institute Canada (DRI)

- See www.dri.ca for information on business continuity education and professional links